Play BINGO at RPL on August 19

Rodman Public Library invites children to come play BINGO on Monday, August 19. The free games will start at 6 p.m. inside the Rodman Main Auditorium and prizes will be awarded to the winners. Registration is required.

Pick Up Take Home Crafts This Month

The Children's Department at Rodman Public Library is cleaning out its cupboards and closets in August and crafty kids will benefit. While supplies last, children can visit the Main Library during August and pick up craft kits to take home and enjoy. The materials will be the same that have been featured in past Kids Crafting and other art programs. Instructions will also be included. Kits will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Some programs require registration at rodmanlibrary.libcal.com

Call 330-821-2665, ext. 223 For more information about children's programming at Rodman Library.

MONTHLY PROGRAMS

Kids Gaming

Kids Gaming is held on the first Wednesday of each month in the Main Library Auditorium. From 4 to 5 p.m., children, ages 8-12, are treated to open play of video games, Minecraft, etc. on devices provided by the library. No registration required. Wednesday, August 7 from 4 to 5 p.m.

Kids Crafting

Rodman Public Library's monthly Kids Crafting program returns in August as children, ages 7-12, are invited to come to the Main Library to paint worry stones. Registration is required. All materials and supplies are provided for free, thanks to the Friends of Rodman Public Library. Thursday, August 8 at 4 p.m.

Branch Take and Make

Starting Thursday, August 1 kids can stop by the Branch to pick up a magnetic shark frame take and make craft while supplies last. Monthly projects are free thanks to the Friends of Rodman Library.

American Revolution Traveling Exhibit to Visit RPL

The Alliance-based Jane Bain Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution is collaborating with the American Battlefield Trust to support an "American Revolution Experience Traveling Exhibit" celebrating the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The innovative 12-panel pop-up exhibition, intended for those in third grade and older, includes display panels and interactive digital kiosks that use storytelling, illustration, technology and unique artifacts and primary accounts to connect modern audiences with the people and places that shaped the birth of our nation.

The exhibit will be on display inside the Rodman Public Library Auditorium from Monday, August 12 through Friday, August 16. The exhibit will open on August 12 at noon and can be viewed during the hours the library is open through August 16 at 4 p.m.

FAMILY FUN

Tabletop Gaming

A popular all-ages program is held monthly at the Main Library when a new game is featured. Of course, other games available in the library's collection will also be available for visitors to play and those attending are always welcome to bring their own games. The aim of the family program is to give area residents an opportunity to gather with others to play their favorite board games and make new friends. Light snacks will be offered and no registration is required to attend. Although the program is open to players of all ages, children under 13 should be accompanied by an adult. For more information, call 330-821-2665, ext. 217.

Wednesday, August 28,
5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Rodman Chess Club

The Rodman Chess Club is open to patrons of all ages who have an interest in the classic board game. Come make new friends and explore the ancient game of strategy. The club, which has no formal membership, meets at 5:30 p.m. every third Wednesday of the month. Several boards are set up in the auditorium as players mingle to find opponents to play against. Players are welcome to come and go as they please throughout the two-hour program. No registration required. For information, call 330-821-2665, ext. 216.

Wednesday, August 21
at 5:30-7:30 p.m.
