ONGOING PROGRAMS

Teen D&D

Teens, 12-18, can sign up at Rodman Public Library to participate in an ongoing series of "one-shot" Dungeons and Dragons missions every month. Players do not have to play consistently each month to participate. Those interested can sign up via our online calendar on a month-to-month basis. Space will be limited each month to six players. A DnD Beyond account and email address is required to play. Before the day of the program, participants will receive a link to the campaign on DnD Beyond via email in order to add their character to the campaign page so the Dungeon Master can review the character beforehand. The Dungeon Master will also inform the participants via email what is needed for their character sheet within the parameters of the adventure. Participants must create a character before the day of the program and have the character ready to go to maximum the time set aside for gameplay. If you need assistance creating a DnD Beyond account or a character, please make arrangements with the Reference Department ahead of time. Sessions will be held on the second Mondays of each month from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Monday, November 13,
4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Teen Gaming

Area teens, ages 12-18, are invited to Rodman Public Library teen gaming days twice in November, however, the usual schedule is interrupted this month. Teen Gaming days are usually held in the Main Auditorium every other Thursday, but November sessions are planned from 3 to 5 p.m. on November 9 and then November 30 – an alteration due to the Thanksgiving holiday. The schedule will resume to every other Thursday in December. Teens will be able to play on Xbox One, Xbox Series X, Playstation 3 & 4, Nintendo Switch and Nintendo WiiU. Games with ratings from "E" for Everyone, up to "T" for Teen level will be offered. No registration is required for these free gaming events. Video gaming is in partnership with Synergy Alliance.

After that, the book will be considered overdue. For more information, visit the Information Center or call 330-821-2665, ext. 217.

Teen Writing Club

Teens who have an interest in writing are encouraged to join Rodman Public Library for the Teen Writing Club. The group usually meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m. at the Main Library. The next session is planned for November 8. The group will not meet, however, on November 22 as the library will close early that day in honor of the Thanksgiving holiday.
